

Couple robbed

THREE men threatened and stole money from an elderly couple on October 8. Mr H. W. Haenggi and his wife were in the kitchen of their home at 10 Escombe Avenue when three Black men entered and threatened them with knives. They stole R45 in cash and forced Mrs Haenggi to write a cheque out to them for R250.

Before they left they tied the couple up and locked them in the bathroom from where they were later released by their grandchildren.
