

4. April 92

Dear Caroline, dear Fernand,

Herewith something I found, which may assist. I have started a last sales effort with another agent to sell Hasli, because I cannot finance the bond repayments anymore.

Healthwise everything seems OK, but with Hasli on my neck I shall not survive financially much longer. May/June 92 is the limit..... In the meantime Henri-Paul and Oumama will have moved to smaller places and I shall be morally relieved.

The fight goes on, a battle lost, but not the war.

Kind regards
Henri