Mr. F.F. Haenggi,
33, Majorca Court,
Cavendish Road,
YEOVILLE, Johannesburg.

Dear Sir,

We have pleasure in confirming your appointment with the City Merchant Bank Limited, Johannesburg, from the 18th November, 1963, subject to a trial period up to the 29th February, 1964, on the basis that your commencing monthly remuneration is as follows:-

Salary (including Cost-of-Living Allowance) R300-00 ~

Meanwhile, it has been arranged that you will be temporarily attached to the staff of this Company until the Bank opens for business in the Johannesburg area.

On the satisfactory completion of the three months' trial period, you will be required to apply for membership of a Pension Fund and a Medical Aid Scheme as nominated by the Bank.

You will be required to conform to the office hours and rules as advised to you and your appointment is terminable on one calendar month's notice on either side.

Will you kindly signify your acceptance of the foregoing conditions of employment by signing and returning to us in the enclosed envelope the attached carbon copy of this letter.

Yours faithfully,

F. COTTY
Secretary
